

From the Principal's Desk

Do we agree that attention is a major building block of intimacy? Do we recognize in ourselves the need we each have for someone to care for us deeply enough to demonstrate affection by giving us their attention? In the beginning of time, God created humans in His own image, and for the purpose of relationship. In light of understanding God's desire for relationship with us, will our computers, cell phones and favorite pastimes appear more irresistible than quality time with God? Do momentary, temporary, external distractions repel God's presence in our daily lives?

Can we shift gears in 2018, and choose to give God more of our attention? He has invited us to come to Him. "...he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." Hebrews 11:6.

In this month of fresh beginnings let us consider the instruction given in Romans 12:2, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

~Mrs. Dolezal

Due to a complication in scheduling Chapel Speakers, we have moved the annual Martin Luther King Day Chapel from January 17 to January 24.

The Moral Outcry By Melinda Thybault

More than 60 million babies have lost their lives to abortion in our nation since 1973 when Roe v. Wade authorized the withdrawing of legal protection by the government from children in the womb- thus allowing them to be killed without fear of punishment. According to the United States Constitution, no person shall be deprived of life without due process of law.

The Moral Outcry is a petition to the Supreme Court to reverse their rulings in the cases of: Roe v. Wade, Doe v. Bolton and Planned Parenthood v. Casey, and restore the right to life as written in the Constitution. It is a right of citizens to petition their government for redress of grievances. The people of the United States did not vote for Roe v. Wade. Instead, the Supreme Court created a crime against humanity with Roe, Doe and Planned Parenthood v. Casey. It is the Supreme Court which must be petitioned by the people to change its decision. This petition is a document to end abortion. To sign the petition go to www.themoraloutcry.com
